Dear Mrs. Porter:

Your letter of October 5th relative to your desire to sell copies of the "Review" has been so long unanswered because I have been absent. The October edition of the "Review" is sold out already but I am preparing a very valuable pamphlet on the life and work of the poet, Paul Lawrence Dunbar." Same will be illustrated with photographs and may be sold at 15¢ a copy. I will supply them to you in lots at the rate of Nine dollars($9.00) per hundred. It ought to be a ready seller.

Very truly yours,
